

erson, then and illegally abstracting electricity, is being sued for £35,000 by the London Electricity Board.

Home for Pym

The Prime Minister announced yesterday that Cheving House, near Sevenoaks, Kent, is to be the official country home of Mr. Francis Pym, Foreign Secretary. The nomination is the gift of the prime minister of the day.

~~Item~~ 2.8 MAY 1982
Carnival boost

The Arts Council of Great Britain announced yesterday that it was increasing its grants to the Notting Hill and Finsbury Park carnivals in London. A total of £30,000