

Mr Nott and submarine

From Lord Carrington

Sir, The unsigned author of your article on Mr Nott, published in today's Times states that even as late as a week before the invasion I prevented Mr Nott from sending a nuclear submarine to the South Atlantic on the grounds that it would be too provocative. This is untrue, as Mr Nott, at the Ministry of Defence, can testify.

Yours faithfully,

CARRINGTON,

32a Ovington Square, SW3.
