From the Principal Private Secretary

24 December, 1984.

Dear Stuart,

Youth Training Scheme

Thank you for your letter of 18 December about a trainee in No.10, which the Prime Minister has seen.

~~BF~~ The Prime Minister notes that it would not be appropriate to use the Young Workers' Scheme to sponsor a trainee in No.10, and accepts that we should therefore proceed on the lines recommended by your Minister of State when he saw the Prime Minister on 12 December and recorded in my letter of that date.

I am sending copies of this letter to Paul Thomas (Office of the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster), Leigh Lewis (Office of the Minister without Portfolio), and Mike Corcoran (Minister of State's Office, HM Treasury).

Yours sincerely,

Robin Butler

Dear Mr Butler,

YOUTH TRAINING SCHEME

attached

Thank you for your letter of 12 December following my Minister's meeting with the Prime Minister to discuss the application of the Youth Training Scheme to the Civil Service.

Further to my telephone conversation this is to confirm that the Minister has spoken to colleagues responsible for the Young Workers' Scheme and that, as he thought, the Scheme does not apply to the Civil Service or indeed to the whole of the public sector.

The Minister of State will of course keep the Prime Minister informed of progress in this area.

I am copying this letter to recipients of yours.

*Yours sincerely,
Stuart Lane*
